

Jonathan Gilbert
General Manager , Food Ingredients Division
Stratas Foods LLC

Jonathan currently manages the Ingredients division of Stratas Foods LLC, the largest producer of packaged fats and oils in North America. Stratas recently has been recognized in the industry for outstanding innovations in functional crystallization technology for non PHO solutions, is a leading supplier in food service and in private label retail bottled oils, and recently added a large mayonnaise, dressing and sauces business. Jonathan has 25 years of experience in the food ingredients business, having spent over 12 years with Cargill in trading, sales and marketing of grains, oilseeds, fats and oils both domestically and in Latin America, 8 years with Flavor Right Foods/Rich Products in whipped toppings and other dairy/non dairy ingredients, and 5 years as GM with Stratas Foods. Stratas is pleased to offer pie industry expertise in shortening and margarine systems, and in clean label and low saturated fat options.
